

SCHOOL FOR INTEGRATED ACADEMICS AND TECHNOLOGIES

The Board of Directors (“Board”) of School for Integrated Academics and Technologies (“SIATech Academy South”) encourages school personnel to require students to respect school property. The Board holds parents/guardians, and adult students, liable for the return of all instructional materials loaned to them, and for payment of theft, damages or vandalism of school facilities and equipment.

Procedures shall be developed to provide for the withholding of grades, diplomas, and/or transcripts when authorized by administrators if students fail to fulfill their responsibilities.

The Board also encourages employees to take reasonable steps to protect SIATech Academy South property, and may hold employees responsible for property losses caused by their willful or negligent acts or omissions.

DATE OF ADOPTION BY THE BOARD: October 20, 2015
