Buttons, Badges and Other Insignia of Symbolic Expression:

Students will be permitted to wear buttons, badges, armbands, and other insignia as a form of expression.

Unofficial School Publications

School officials may not ban the distribution of non-school-sponsored publications on school grounds. Writers and editors of unofficial student publications who violate any state or federal law may be disciplined after distribution. Students distributing or posting any materials which are obscene, libelous or slanderous, or which demonstrably incite students to commit unlawful acts on school premises, violate school rules, or substantially disrupt the school's orderly operation will be subject to disciplinary action.

The following points apply to unofficial student publications:

1. Schools may disassociate themselves from the material printed inasmuch as it is not an official publication of the school.
2. School officials may reasonably regulate the time, place and manner of distribution. This distribution will be limited to:
 - a. One half hour before school begins, during lunch period or the half hour after dismissal.
 - b. In locations that do not obstruct the normal flow of traffic within school or at entrances.
 - c. Without undue noise.
3. No student shall use coercion to induce students or any other persons to accept printed matter or to sign petitions.
4. "Distribution" means dissemination of a publication to students at a time and place of normal school activity, or immediately prior to or subsequent thereto, by means of handing out free copies, selling or offering copies for sale, accepting donations for copies of the publication, or displaying the student publication in areas of the school which are generally frequented by students.

School officials cannot:

1. Prohibit the distribution of anonymous literature or require that literature bear the name of the sponsoring organization or author.
2. Ban the distribution of literature because it contains advertising.
3. Create regulations that discriminate against non-school-sponsored publications or interfere with the effective distribution of non-sponsored publications provided such publications abide by time, place and manner regulations.

Other forms of Student Expression

Forms of student expression may include, but are not limited to speech, debate, assemblies, posters, bulletin board announcements, and the wearing of buttons, badges and armbands. In general, the laws pertaining to all forms of student expression are the same. The rights of students to express their opinions are recognized by law and are not limited to verbal expression. The basic guidelines listed above for publications apply to all forms of student expression. No teacher or administrator shall interfere with such expression on the grounds that the message may be unpopular with students or faculty.

In conforming to state and federal laws, student expression must obey copyright laws; for example, student posters cannot use nationally registered and copyrighted characters such as those from Walt Disney or “peanuts’ publications.

Distribution of Procedures Governing Student Rights

Site administrators will distribute copies of this Administrative Procedure to all teachers who are advisors of students who produce publications or present public performances. It is the responsibility of School for Integrated Academics and Technologies (“SIATech”) and site administrators to see that these guidelines are kept up-to-date and accurate.

Appeals

The pupil and a SIATech staff member shall attempt to resolve the problem before consulting the administrative staff. If the issue cannot be resolved between the staff member and the pupil, the pupil may appeal the decision to the site administrator, and then to the Charter School Superintendent or his/her designee on SIATech Form S105. As a final step, the pupil may request a hearing under this Board policy. The hearing shall be held before the Board or an impartial person appointed by the Board within ten (10) school days after the hearing is requested. Both sides shall be given the opportunity to demonstrate that the Board policy was properly applied. The Board will render a decision within ten (10) school days.
