

SCHOOL FOR INTEGRATED ACADEMICS & TECHNOLOGIES

The use of the School for Integrated Academics and Technologies (SIATech Academy South) computer system, SIATech Net, is a privilege for which all users (students and staff) accept responsibility. The computer system is intended to provide: Support for learning, increased opportunities for communication, additional resources for general information, and increased opportunities for personal growth.

The school's computer systems, equipment, and all user accounts are the property of SIATech. There is no right to privacy in the use of the computer system or user accounts, and SIATech reserves the right to monitor and access information on the system and in users' accounts for the purpose of determining whether a violation of this agreement has occurred. SIATech will remove any information on the system which the staff determines to be unlawful, obscene, pornographic, abusive, harassing, or otherwise in violation of this agreement, including all items defined as harmful matter under the California Penal Code.

SIATech will not be held responsible for loss of data resulting from delays, non-deliveries, or service interruptions sustained or incurred in connection with the use, operation, or inability to use the system. The school specifically denies any responsibility for the accuracy or quality of information obtained electronically. Use of any information obtained electronically is at the risk of the user.

The staff of SIATech will make a reasonable attempt to screen items defined as harmful matter in the California Penal Code. It is not feasible to completely limit access to materials that a parent or guardian might consider inappropriate; therefore, appropriate use is the responsibility of the user.
